

Black & Indigenous Speaker Series Speaker Nomination Form

Deadline to Submit Nominations – January 31, 2025

Use this form to nominate a speaker for future MSVU Black & Indigenous Speakers Series events. Please submit this form to speakerseries@msvu.ca

Submitted by	Date of Nomination
Email Address	Telephone #

Name of Nominated Speaker	Affiliated Institution
Area of Research
Link to Website or Faculty Page	Are you willing to Invite the Speaker on Behalf of MSVU
	Yes  No  Maybe

Black & Indigenous Speaker Series Speaker Nomination Form

Preamble/Principles:

The MSVU Black and Indigenous Speaker Series highlights the scholarly work of Black and Indigenous scholars from across Turtle Island. The purpose of this series is to initiate important conversation by inviting Black and Indigenous scholars to share their knowledge, worldviews, and their contributions to their respective academic field.

Speaker Criteria:

Speakers nominated for the series should:

- Identify as Black, Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, and Inuit) or Aboriginal.
- Be an active contributor to an academic discipline or professional field.
- Affiliated with an academic institution, research institution, or college.

Any related questions can be directed to speakerseries@msvu.ca.